

House Resolution 374

By: Representatives Dickson of the 6th, Forster of the 3rd, Williams of the 4th, Jamieson of the 28th, and Ralston of the 7th

A RESOLUTION

1 Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Georgia so as to provide that if nonresidential
2 property is annexed into a municipality, the ad valorem school taxes on that property will
3 remain with the county school system unless otherwise provided by the General Assembly
4 by local Act or by agreement between the county school system and the independent school
5 system; to provide for the submission of this amendment for ratification or rejection; and for 6 other purposes.

7 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

8
9 Article VIII, Section VI, Paragraph I of the Constitution is amended by revising
10 subparagraph (a) as follows:

11 "(a) The board of education of each school system shall annually certify to its fiscal 12 authority or authorities a school tax not greater than 20 mills per dollar for the support and
13 maintenance of education. Said fiscal authority or authorities shall annually levy said tax
14 upon the assessed value of all taxable property within the territory served by said school
15 system, provided that the levy made by an area board of education, which levy shall not be 16 greater than 20 mills per dollar, shall be in such amount and within such limits as may be
17 prescribed by local law applicable thereto. Where property, other than undeveloped
18 property, that is zoned and used solely for nonresidential purposes is annexed into a 19 municipality with an independent school system, the ad valorem taxes levied for 20 educational purposes on such nonresidential property shall remain with the county school
21 system; provided, however, that for an annexation by local Act, such local Act may provide 22 otherwise and provided that a county school system and an independent school system may 23 provide otherwise by agreement."

SECTION 2.

The above proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be published and submitted as provided in Article X, Section I, Paragraph II of the Constitution. The ballot submitting the above proposed amendment shall have written or printed thereon the following:

"( ) YES    Shall the Constitution of Georgia be amended so as to provide that if nonresidential property is annexed into a municipality, the ad valorem school taxes on that property will remain with the county school system unless otherwise provided by the General Assembly by local Act or by agreement between the county school system and the independent school system?"

All persons desiring to vote in favor of ratifying the proposed amendment shall vote "Yes."
All persons desiring to vote against ratifying the proposed amendment shall vote "No." If such amendment shall be ratified as provided in said Paragraph of the Constitution, it shall become a part of the Constitution of this state.